Behavioral Medicine (Updated Feb 2022)

Any Amount – Behavioral Medicine Educational Support

Provides funding for educational conventions and associated travel costs, textbooks, and graduate study costs for residents, technicians and faculty.

$1,500 – Equine Behavior Educational Support

Supports honoraria and travel fees for equine veterinary behavior welfare specialist to provide lectures and hands on workshops for first year veterinary students, faculty and staff.

$3,000 – Sponsor Resident

Residency programs are usually over a 3-year period and provide intense learning opportunities. Sponsor a resident by assisting with the cost of textbooks, computer and statistical software, learning aids, and continuing education events. This gives our residents the opportunity to learn the latest information and to present the results of their research at national meetings and short courses.

$60,000 – Annual Support for a Resident in Behavior Medicine (Highest Priority)

This includes salary and benefits for one resident. In addition to teaching students and seeing patients, residents conduct a research project.

$1,500,000 – Endowed Resident in Behavior Medicine

Endowments help ensure that funding is available in perpetuity for residents. Endowed positions are a proven recruitment tool to attract proficient, dedicated, and talented mid-career surgeons or retain current faculty or residents.

$4,000,000 – Endowed Chair in Behavioral Medicine

Endowments help ensure that funding is available in perpetuity for faculty. Endowed positions are a proven recruitment tool to attract proficient, dedicated, and talented mid-career surgeons or retain current faculty.
